Look Here, Girls!

Betty Bright and Kitty-Kats.

22 INCHES
LIFE SIZE

Betty Bright is a handsome, big, fat, chubby, lovable doll. She is twenty-two inches tall, so she is as big as a real live baby. She has yellow curls, a big bright red hair ribbon, red ribbons in her under-bodice and fancy socks, with cute little slippers. She comes to you all ready to cut out with plain directions, so simple that any child may follow them.

Besides that, there are two Kitty-Kats, which come with Betty Bright. They are each six inches tall, one kitten is yellow and white, and the other kitten is black and white. Each have red ribbons and a bell about their necks. They are made of very serviceable cloth, so that they will wear for a great length of time. All you have to do is to follow the simple directions, cut them out, and stuff them, and you have a great big life-sized doll, also two cute Kitty-Kats. Children invariably love a cloth doll in preference to a breakable doll.

There is also considerable pleasure and amusement to be derived when cutting them out, and making them at home. Every little girl will love Betty Bright and the two Kitty-Kats.

Our Offer: Cut out this advertisement and bring it to our store with 25 cents and we will give you Betty Bright and two Kitty-Kats. Be sure to bring the ad. with you.

NEARLY $800,000,000.

That's What the Senate Provides For Preparedness.

Nearly $700,000,000 for national defense for the fiscal year of 1917 is the aggregate of proposed appropriations reported in the United States Senate with the passage of the army bill, carrying in round numbers $14,000,000.

This grand total for preparedness still is subject to revision, because the army bill will follow the naval bill into conference, where reductions are probably, despite the firm attitude of President Wilson in supporting the liberal response of the Senate to the call for adequate defense. The appropriations for preparedness as they now stand are as follows:

Army, $313,970,447.10; navy, $315,826,843.55; fortifications law, $25,748,050; military academy, $2,238,328.57; army and navy deficiency, $27,559,348.05. Total, $685,343,017.27.

As it passed the Senate the army bill exceeded the appropriation made by the House by more than $131,000,000. In the final hours of debate on the measure the Senate agreed to an appropriation of $2,000,000 for relief of dependent families of National Guardsmen and regular army soldiers in service in the Mexican emergency. Distribution of the fund is left to the discretion of the Secretary of War, but in no case shall any dependent family receive more than $50 a month.

An amendment giving soldiers on the border the right to vote in the field in the November elections was eliminated from the bill on a point of order.

As soon as the army bill was out of the way the Senate took up and passed after brief debate the military academy appropriation bill, carrying $2,238,327.57, an increase of $1,015,524 over the House authorization.

Among legislative provisions included in the appropriation bill are:

Creation of a council of national defense for the co-ordination of industries and resources for the national security and welfare, to consist of the Secretaries of State, War, and Navy, chief of staff of the army, an officer of the navy and six civilians, to be appointed by the President, who shall have special knowledge of some natural resources. Civilian members would serve without compensation except for expenses incurred.

Ten per cent increase in pay for officers of regular army and National Guard and 20 per cent for enlisted men in actual service in the Mexican campaign or on border duty. Increase in the age minimum for enlistment in the regular army without consent of parent or guardian. Revision of the article of war governing rules of court martial.

The Negro Melody.

I don't suppose there is a people more full of sentiment than the negro. And when that sentiment is not misdirected it serves a good purpose. For instance, his devotion to the neighborhood he calls home is beautiful. He may never have owned a foot of land in it, perhaps he has never owned anything, but he calls it home and loves it and in the large majority of cases spends his life there among his "own white folks."

He is not always able to express his sentiments but in the following song some one has beautifully expressed them for him. It tells his feelings about the loss of his young wife and is also a song of the old days:

Kittie Wells.

You ask what makes this darkie weep,
Why he like others am not gay,
What makes the tears flow down his cheek
From early morn till close of day?
My story, darkies, you shall hear,
For in my memory fresh it dwells.
'Twill cause you all to shed a tear
On the grave of my sweet Kittie Wells.

CHORUS.

O, the birds were singing sweetly in the morning
And the myrtle and the ivy
Were in bloom,
The sun on the hilltops was dawning;
'Twas then they laid her in the tomb.
I never can forget the day
We roamed together in the dells,
I kissed her cheek and named the day
That I would marry Kittie Wells.
But death came in my cabin door
And took from me my joy, my pride,
And when I found she was no more,
I laid my banjo down and cried.

CHORUS.

I often wish that I was dead
And laid beside her in the tomb.
The sorrow that bows down my head
Is silent in the midnight gloom.
The springtime has no charm for me,
Though flowers are blooming in the dells,
For that bright form I do not see;
The form of my sweet Kittie Wells.

If any one has the poem "Let's go visitin' Back to Grisby station, Back where they used to be So happy and so poor," Will they please send it to The Journal. I am very anxious to get it.—Edna V. Funderburk.

Cure for Cholera Morbus.

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. "Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel troubles with good satisfaction and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere.

Hughes For Women Suffrage by U. S. Action.

New York Dispatch, Aug. 1.

Charles E. Hughes twice today declared himself in favor of an amendment to the Federal Constitution granting the vote to women throughout the United States.

In a letter to Senator Sutherland of Utah, sent in response to a telegram, Mr. Hughes stated his personal view that the proposed amendment should be submitted by Congress to the States and ratified. In a speech late today before 500 women of the Women's Roosevelt League for Hughes, the nominee declared the question was one affecting the whole country and that he favored "taking the shortest cut to its solution."

"I believe this question should be promptly settled," Mr. Hughes said. "I see nothing but danger to our security, to our unity, to our proper attitude toward political questions, in continued agitation of this subject."

In his address to the league Mr. Hughes again assailed the Administration for its policy concerning American rights abroad during the European war.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A drug-gist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

No wonder the fair sex is clamoring for equal rights. As it now stands, when a man dies his better half is entitled to only a third of his estate.
